

Orleans County
Cornell Cooperative Extension

Home & Garden Hour

Lee-Whedon Memorial Library

Join us for Home and Garden Hour! Starting August 2014, we will host horticulture-themed presentations at the Lee-Whedon Memorial Library in Medina on the first Thursday of each month at 7 pm. Our first presentation is on August 7. The schedule for Home and Garden Hour is:

August 7: Heirloom Apple Trees – Katie Oakes will share LynOaken Farm’s experience with establishing and caring for heirloom apple trees. If you’re interested in adding heirloom trees to your home orchard, or just want to learn more about growing vintage fruit, this presentation is for you!

September 4: Putting Your Garden to Bed – Master Gardener Michael Klepp will present on how to use our wonderful fall weather to prepare gardens and plants for winter. Michael tends the gardens at Lee-Whedon Memorial Library and looks forward to helping you keep your garden healthy through our coldest months.

October 2: Garlic – Master Gardener John Myers will talk about successfully growing garlic in the garden with a fall planting. Garlic is an awesome addition to a garden – and it’s tasty too!

November 6: Herbs for Health – Jamie Brennan of Tranquility Herbals will demonstrate how to make herbal teas and incorporate herbs to improve health. This presentation is perfect for those interested in successfully navigating through cold/flu season or holiday stress, so relax and enjoy an evening with Jamie.

December 4: TBD