The Friends of the Library welcome new volunteers to become involved in their activities. Opportunities include working on the Book Sale and assisting with the annual budget vote in May. Volunteers make a valuable contribution to the library and to the community.

Established in 1997, the Friends of the Library provides supplemental support to Lee-Whedon Memorial Library primarily through membership dues and book sales. The Friends have raised almost $100,000 for the library to date.

Two Friends, Gary and Norma Jones, are shown volunteering at the annual Book Sale.

Funds are used to support:

- ☞ "Finally Fridays!" music
- ☞ History Discussion Group
- ☞ Additional supplies for library programs
